Hello Andrew,

Thank you for submitting your revision for "Interdisciplinarity and Peer Evaluation as Tools for Enhancing Graduate Student Teaching Training" to To Improve the Academy: A Journal of Educational Development.

In addition to the revised manuscript, we request that you provide a detailed note (with no identifying data) that outlines how you responded to the feedback. While the submission system offers a textbox for this purpose, we recommend uploading a file. You can upload your note to the submission system, or you can attach it to an email response to this message, and I can upload it for you.

Warm regards,
Jessi and Megan
